

SUITS

s01e04

vocabulary
modal verbs at / on / in phrasal verbs
idioms

just TAKE A LESSON

VOCABULARY

A2 / B1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

business	square	taller
freeze	reason	library
prepare	loser	check

00:09

What is the oldest book in the Harvard collection?

00:54

Late night studying and you want pizza, where do you go?

02:52

Listen, nobody's gonna into your past unless you give them to.

05:43

It's none of my

05:59

And if I'm gonna turn this into a winner.

07:08

Three below, the heat went out and I nearly to death.

09:37

- Isn't she a little than you?
- It's the heels.

15:24

I'm a boy scout. I like to be

VOCABULARY

A2 / B1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

stupid	gentle	charge
team	bigger	need
goal	personal	lie

16:14

I to talk to you.

17:06

I'm your first? Don't worry, I promise not to be 23:10

For all his faults, Quentin has never to me before.

24:54

So I should find other people in Frank's building? Think 28:59

People are when they're young.

29:17

Now we're sharing our lives?

30:36

Come on, Lisa, we're all on the same here.

32:39

Would there be criminal?

32:43

It's a conflict for us. Look, our is to protect you.

VOCABULARY

B2 / C1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

trait	phrase	concern
develop	drug	dictate
vest	hamstring	imply

00:17

The rules you must be precise.

01:40

The question was "how many justices were from Harvard?"

03:28

- Why was he holding your hands?
- What are you, Harvey?

03:56

And everyone who is taking that is going to die anyway.

05:30

Because you and I share the same of keeping our personal lives personal.

05:54

But when their ex-wives are also my managing partner, that me.

06:12

Do you have any idea how hard it is to a new drug if you're not Pfizer [...]

06:25

That's none of your

11:55

By the way, that's a three-piece suit. Where's the?

VOCABULARY

B2 / C1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

trial	weaknesses	guarantee
investigation	settle	posture
tenant	habitability	side

12:33

Look, we can sit here and about the strengths and of our cases.

13:30

Because if your client wants to sell me the idea that he didn't know about these effects years ago, I'm not buying it.

16:00

You need to this case, Harvey.

16:47

Uh, well, usually the starts, and there's the judge, and then...You know, people say things.

18:11

The pertinent question is not, but whether or not rent has been paid.

23:42

The reveals what it reveals.

24:51

If they did this to him, I they've done this to others.

26:52

Are there any other who've been here for a while, you know, who might be able to show us [...]

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

20:43

I think I [find] a way to keep that miracle going. I was going through the plaintiff's medical files, and then I found this. [may]

23:44

If he lied about this, he [lie] about anything. [could]

24:53

- I guarantee they've done this to others.
- So I [find] other people in Frank's building? [should]

25:26

- You [not / get] their names from housing complaints? [could]
- No, it gave me some names. But I need to make this bigger than just his building.

27:55

But you let me believe it. I [not / start] with Lisa when I did, but it happened long after you and I both know we weren't working. [should]

29:28

- Did he falsify the clinical trials?
- He says he [not / do] that. [would] 31:21

He was sick, he needed the drug, and you [do] anything for fda approval. [would]

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

32:01

No, he [wait], and we didn't have the time. [would]

32:06

- And I love him. So what else [I / do] [could]
- Look, there is an upside to all of this.

32:23

The company [be] liable for actual damages, but we can shift the blame for the fraud to Lisa. [may]

32:39

- [there / be] criminal charges? [would]
- Possibly. She [get] her own lawyer. [should] 34:19

You [hear] their stories. It'd break your heart. Uh, if you had a heart. [should]

38:58

Oh, you brought a sack lunch. We [share]. [would] 41:44

Yeah. In fact, I think that we [have] a date night to celebrate. [should]

At, on or in? Decide below:

01:01

I study better protein.

04:15

And what is it exactly that makes you believe him?

05:18

I'm sorry it's so late, but it's hard to be time.

16:27

I could win housing court.

21:58

Mr. Specter, you can question his tactics all you like trial, but he's right.

24:17

You and I both lost court yesterday.

24:34

Vivien Tanaka represents half the high-rises Manhattan.

26:27

Well, that is such the right way to look it.

30:36

Come on, Lisa, we're all the same team here.

32:27

There'd be a small payment, but you might be able to keep the drug the market.

34:54

Is this the building we were yesterday?

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

B1 / C1

Match the expressions with the meanings:

1. go out
2. tear somebody apart
3. go back to something
4. go after somebody
5. take down someone
6. put down roots
7. track down someone
8. keep at something
9. back something up
10. drive somebody out

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

B1 / C1

- A. to defeat or kill someone / pokonać kogoś
- B. to search for someone, often when it is difficult to find that person / śledzić
- C. to prove something is true / podeprzeć coś używając dowodów
- D. to continue to do or work on something / kontynuować, robić dalej
- E. to cause someone to be extremely or inconsolably sad; to devastate someone / obrzucić kogoś błotem, bezlitośnie potraktować
- F. to stop burning or shining / gasnąć (zepsuć się)
- G. to make a place their home, for example by taking part in activities there or by making a lot of friends there / zapuszczać korzenie
- H. to force someone to leave or stop doing something / pozbyć się, wypędzać kogoś
- I. to chase or follow someone in order to catch them / ścigać kogoś / nękać
- J. to start doing something again that you were doing before / wracać do czegoś

Now check the meanings in the sentences:

1. Mike: Okay, so Karinski owned this building for two years?

Man: Yeah, then things got bad. Three below, the heat went out and I nearly froze to death.

2. Jessica: So you think you'll look like a boy scout by putting dying people on the stand and tearing them apart?

3. Louis: But I still expected you to win. So yeah, I guess... Go back to your research.

4. Mike: Well, that's great. Forcing Frank out for conversion is harassment, I can go after him for that.

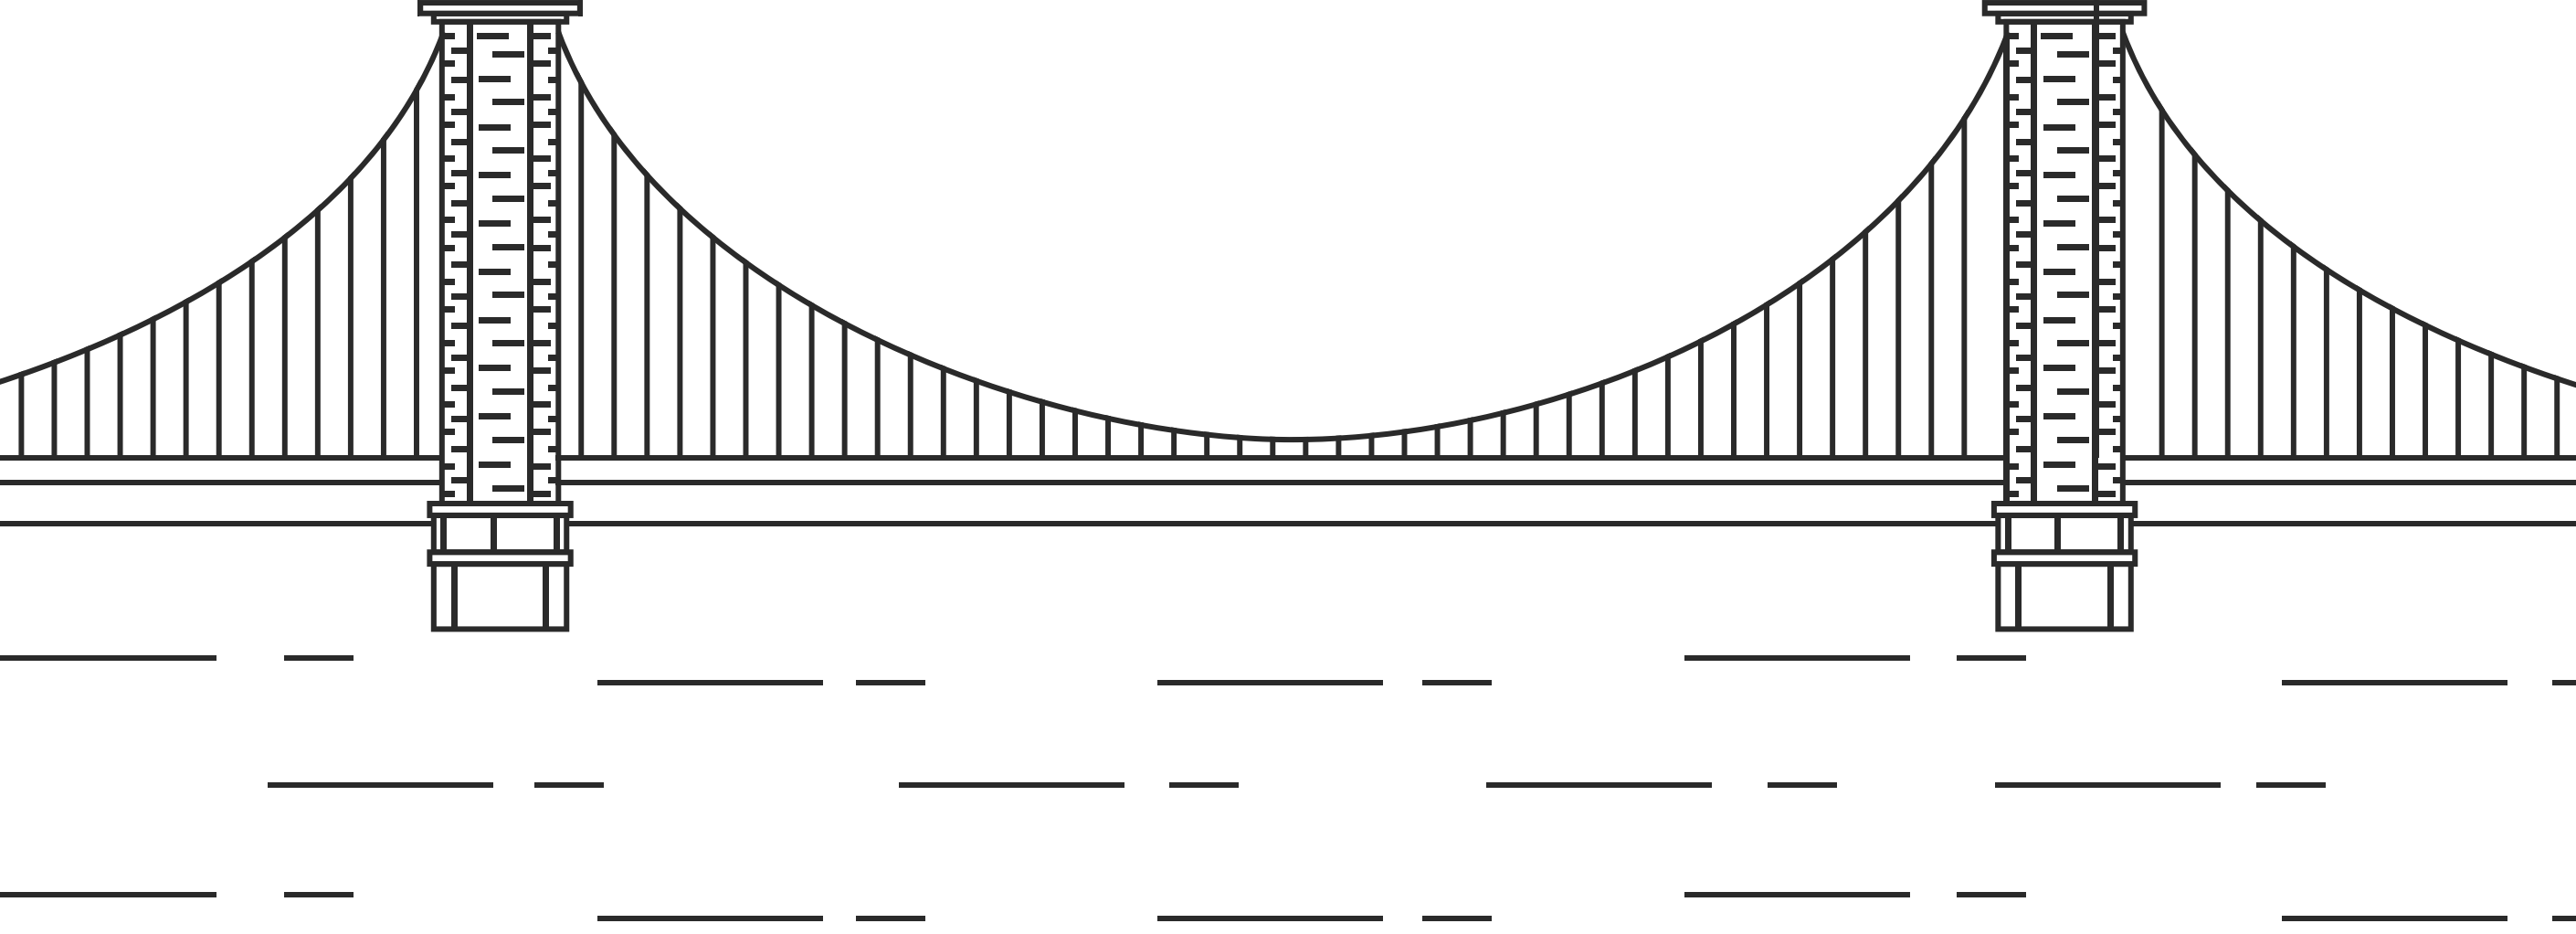

Harvey: No, you wanna take down Vivien, you better go in there with more than just one client.

5. Mike: That's good to hear. Yeah, 'cause we're not just looking at buying square footage, but really put down some roots.

6. Mike: Look, you said think bigger, right? I tracked down 15 former tenants who are willing to testify to all manner of harassment that forced them out of their apartments.

7. Harvey: Emotion is fine, but you better have some cold, hard facts to back it up. Because Vivien Tanaka is no pushover. But... It's good work. Keep at it.

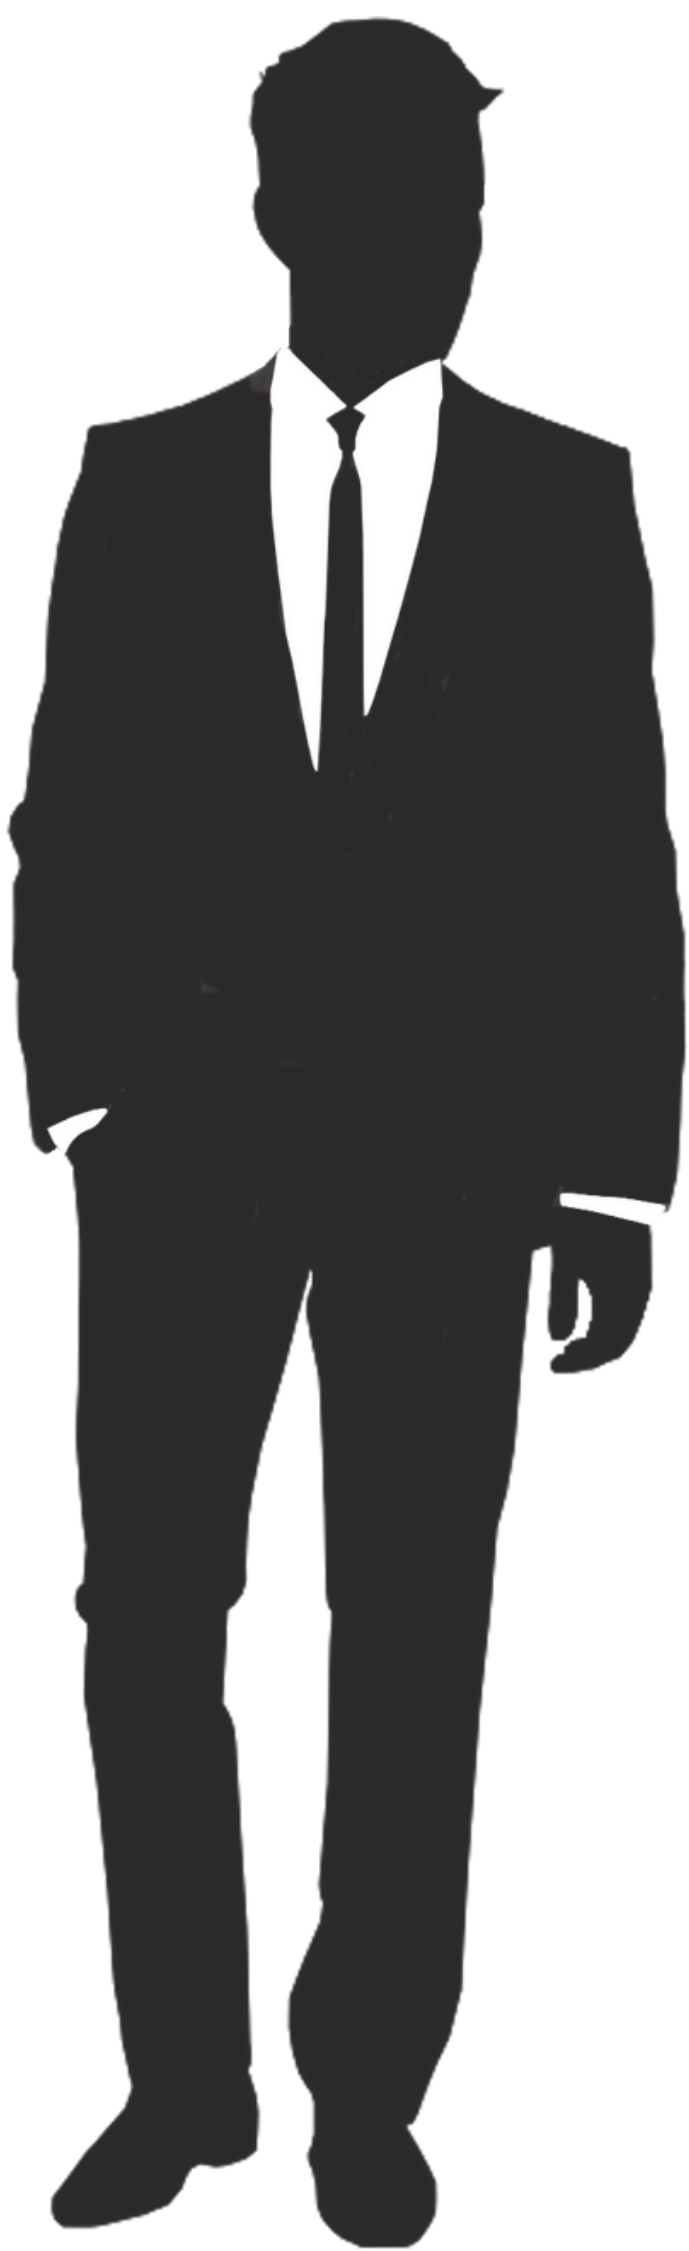

8. Mike: Carpet that was already infested-- And then he reinstalled it in my client's apartment to drive him out.

SUITS

s01e04

ANSWERS

vocabulary

modal verbs

at / on / in

phrasal verbs

idioms

just TAKE A LESSON

VOCABULARY

A2 / B1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

business	square	taller
freeze	reason	library
prepare	loser	check

00:09

What is the oldest book in the Harvard library collection?

00:54

Late night studying and you want square pizza, where do you go?

02:52

Listen, nobody's gonna check into your past unless you give them reason to.

05:43

It's none of my business.

05:59

And if I'm gonna turn this loser into a winner.

07:08

Three below, the heat went out and I nearly froze to death.

09:37

- Isn't she a little taller than you?
- It's the heels.

15:24

I'm a boy scout. I like to be prepared.

VOCABULARY

A2 / B1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

stupid	gentle	charge
team	bigger	need
goal	personal	lie

16:14

I need to talk to you.

17:06

I'm your first? Don't worry, I promise not to be gentle.

23:10

For all his faults, Quentin has never lied to me before.

24:54

So I should find other people in Frank's building? Think bigger.

28:59

People are stupid when they're young.

29:17

Now we're sharing our personal lives?

30:36

Come on, Lisa, we're all on the same team here.

32:39

Would there be criminal charges?

32:43

It's a conflict for us. Look, our goal is to protect you.

VOCABULARY

B2 / C1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

trait	phrase	concern
develop	drug	dictate
vest	hamstring	imply

00:17

The rules dictate you must be precise.

01:40

The question was phrased "how many justices were from Harvard?"

03:28

- Why was he holding your hands?
- What are you implying, Harvey?

03:56

And everyone who is taking that drug is going to die anyway.

05:30

Because you and I share the same trait of keeping our personal lives personal.

05:54

But when their ex-wives are also my managing partner, that hamstrings me.

06:12

Do you have any idea how hard it is to develop a new drug if you're not Pfizer [...]

06:25

That's none of your concern.

11:55

By the way, that's a three-piece suit. Where's the vest?

VOCABULARY

B2 / C1

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

trial	weaknesses	guarantee
investigation	settle	posture
tenant	habitability	side

12:33

Look, we can sit here and posture about the strengths and weaknesses of our cases.

13:30

Because if your client wants to sell me the idea that he didn't know about these side effects years ago, I'm not buying it.

16:00

You need to settle this case, Harvey.

16:47

Uh, well, usually the trial starts, and there's the judge, and then...You know, people say things.

18:11

The pertinent question is not habitability, but whether or not rent has been paid.

23:42

The investigation reveals what it reveals.

24:51

If they did this to him, I guarantee they've done this to others.

26:52

Are there any other tenants who've been here for a while, you know, who might be able to show us [...]

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

20:43

I think I may have found a way to keep that miracle going. I was going through the plaintiff's medical files, and then I found this.
[may]

23:44

If he lied about this, he could've lied about anything. [could]

24:53

- I guarantee they've done this to others.
- So I should find other people in Frank's building? [should]

25:26

- You couldn't get their names from housing complaints? [could]
- No, it gave me some names. But I need to make this bigger than just his building.

27:55

But you let me believe it. I shouldn't have started with Lisa when I did, but it happened long after you and I both know we weren't working. [should]

29:28

- Did he falsify the clinical trials?
- He says he wouldn't do that. [would] 31:21

He was sick, he needed the drug, and you would've done anything for fda approval.
[would]

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

32:01

No, he would've waited, and we didn't have the time. [would]

32:06

- And I love him. So what else could I do?
- Look, there is an upside to all of this.
[could]

32:23

The company may be liable for actual damages, but we can shift the blame for the fraud to Lisa. [may]

32:39

- Would there be criminal charges? [would]
- Possibly. She should get her own lawyer.
[should]

34:19

You should hear their stories. It'd break your heart. Uh, if you had a heart. [should]

38:58

Oh, you brought a sack lunch. We would've shared. [would] 41:44

Yeah. In fact, I think that we should have a date night to celebrate. [should]

At, on or in? Decide below:

01:01

I study better on protein.

04:15

And what is it exactly that makes you believe in him?

05:18

I'm sorry it's so late, but it's hard to be on time.

16:27

I could win at housing court.

21:58

Mr. Specter, you can question his tactics all you like at trial, but he's right.

24:17

You and I both lost in court yesterday.

24:34

Vivien Tanaka represents half the high-rises in Manhattan.

26:27

Well, that is such the right way to look at it.

30:36

Come on, Lisa, we're all on the same team here.

32:27

There'd be a small payment, but you might be able to keep the drug on the market.

34:54

Is this the building we were in yesterday?

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

B1 / C1

Match the expressions with the meanings:

1. go out - to stop burning or shining / gasnąć (zepsuć się)
2. tear somebody apart - to cause someone to be extremely or inconsolably sad; to devastate someone / obrzucić kogoś błotem, bezlitośnie potraktować
3. go back to something - to start doing something again that you were doing before / wracać do czegoś
4. go after somebody - to chase or follow someone in order to catch them / ścigać kogoś / nękać
5. take down someone - to defeat or kill someone / pokonać kogoś
6. put down roots - to make a place their home, for example by taking part in activities there or by making a lot of friends there / zapuszczać korzenie
7. track down someone - to search for someone, often when it is difficult to find that person / śledzić
8. keep at something - to continue to do or work on something / kontynuować, robić dalej
9. back something up - to prove something is true / podeprzeć coś używają dowodów
10. drive somebody out - to force someone to leave or stop doing something / pozbyć się, wypędzać kogoś