

SUITS

s 0 1 e 0 9

vocabulary modal verbs present perfect phrasal verbs idioms

A LESSON

cancer

clear

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

duty

attend imagine prove valuable crisscross direction - Is something funny? 00:20 - I'm trying to you fighting someone. It's not the most glamorous in the 00:53 world. This place is huge. I always get turned 01:14 around. Maybe you can point me in the right You Apple Creek High School, is 01:56 that right? Because 200 people who taught at or 02:13 attended Apple Creek High were diagnosed with some form of You see all these power lines around here? 14:04 They the entire town. - They both died last month, and they sure as 14:30 hell didn't die from pesticide. - Can you it? They're gonna investigate this. They're gonna 19:28 your name, you know that.

Because a fifth-year paralegal is more

..... to the firm than [...]

21:51

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

traitor interview decimal willing back skim law rule piece

24:10	I'm gonna tell you every single number on this
24:22	You get one number, one comma, one point wrong, and that money is mine.
25:05	Hi, I'm Rachel Zane. I'm here for my job
30:55	I don't understand why you use milk and then put whipped cream and sugar in it.
31:30	Mike, Louis is a lot of things, but he's not a
37:49	[] are gonna fly to Boston and never come back to my town again.
38:42	Because a man who's to break the can't imagine someone else wouldn't.
40.48	And Pearson-Hardman pays for school when I decide to go.

B2 / C1

VOCABULARY

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

rattle frivolous pesticide entirely shatter chain brownstone breach difficulty

01:36	[] we moved here from Apple Creek, New York, six years ago. We bought a, and planted a tomato garden.
01:52	I mean, there's times I have even going up the stairs to my daughter's room.
03:42	Not to mention the lawsuit he filed ten years ago against the Shriver grocery
03:49	I slipped and my elbow.
05:39	I told you this was coming. They're just trying to you.
08:23	We've discovered a at the firm.
08:31	Now it's possible that this was an honest mistake.
14:12	And all this grass that you see? It's been treated with every week for 20 years.

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

suspended plaintiff elusive lowball settlement frame betray smoking leak

I've been looking into you. You're an 15:37 man. He said me and the other were 15:52 gonna get a settlement offer soon. No, I don't, but whoever did this must have 19:23 you. I'm Mike. I'm probably gonna be 19:35 fired. We were invited to come and hear 26:00 a offer. They're talking about accepting Tanner's 27:59 offer. Last week Louis got Rachel's confidential 31:12 code from the I.T. department. [...] And it's a gun. - Why would Louis the firm? 31:24 - I don't know, maybe he's still upset... Wakefield-Cady offered me a junior 34:37 partnership if I the witness list.

B1 / B2

GRAMMAR

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

01:48	After being diagnosed with lung cancer, I [could / not / work] anymore.
09:21	[] which means one of you
12:40	Jessica [would / never / play] along with something like that.
19:23	No, I don't, but whoever did this[must / frame] you.
19:37	I'm probably gonna be fired. I
20:23	 You know, you [could / just / pay] me right out in public. But then I [would / not / feel] like James Bond.
29:38	Why [would / I / fight] to stay there? They're accusing me of spilling secrets?
29:47	I [may / not / have] a photographic memory, Mike, but I sure as hell know a lot.
41:07	You're right. I [should / apologize].

Complete the sentences with the verbs in the correct form of Present Perfect.

09:04	Someone in this room [betray] us all, and it makes me sick.
10:43	How come I [never / hear] of him?
10:59	He thinks they [tell] me about him.
12:56	Why [not / anyone / take] them to him?
19:31	I [work] there for five years, and this is how they treat me?
20:42	You [never / come] up empty for me before.
21:04	You [never / ask] me to investigate another attorney before.
23:42	[anyone / ever / ask] you for access to someone else's code?
29:35	Because except for you, no one from Pearson-Hardman [contact] me at all.
35:32	I mean, [not / you / ever / cut]some corners?
35:32	I mean, [not / you / ever / cut]

some corners?

A2 / C1

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

Match the expressions with the meanings:

- 1. off the charts
- 2. stand up for somebody
- 3. go down
- 4. take care of somebody
- 5. call back (someone)
- 6. take somebody down
- 7. slow down
- 8. figure out
- 9. work your ass off
- 10. buy off someone
- 11. cut corners

A2 / C1

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

- A. to be less active and relax more / zwolnić
- B. to telephone someone who has telephoned you, often to telephone again / oddzwonić
- C. to do something in the easiest, cheapest, or fastest way / iść na skróty
- D. to stop working / zawieszać się
- E. to understand or solve something / zrozumieć, znaleźć rozwiązanie
- F. to give someone money so that person will help you or let you do something that is not legal / przekupić kogoś
- G. at a very high level / poza skalą (np. o jakości)
- H. to protect someone and provide the things that that person needs / dbać o kogoś
- I. a rude phrase used to emphasize that someone works very hard / harować
- J. to defeat or kill someone, or to stop someone from causing harm / załatwić, zniszczyć kogoś
- K. to defend or support a person who is being criticized or attacked / bronić się

Now check the meanings in the sentences:

1.

Mike: More importantly, he was the youngest senior partner at Clyde-MacPhee. This guy's record is off the charts.

2.

Rachel: I'm suspended, Mike. I'm probably gonna be fired. I should sue them.

Mike: Okay, let's not do anything rash, okay? Rachel: It's not rash. It's standing up for myself.

3.

Ben: Pearson-Hardman takes care of us because we're on call 24/7. If a server goes down or a partner's computer crashes, people die.

4.

Mike: Rachel, it's Mike. I figured out who leaked the list to Wakefield-Cady. It was Louis. Call me back.

5.

Mike: Louis framed you. We can take him down.

Rachel: I don't want to take him down, Mike.

Mike: Why not?

Rachel: Because I want a fresh start.

Now check the meanings in the sentences:

6.

Mike: 74 plaintiffs. I can't believe they're willing to cave for $25,000.

Harvey: Slow down. We need to figure out how to beat Tanner.

7. Jimmy: I worked my ass off to get into Harvard Law and become an associate here.

Mike: You know who else worked their ass off? Rachel Zane, the paralegal who got fired because of what you did.

8.

Harvey: I don't know if they taught you math at Yale, but that's 5 million. $25,000 a plaintiff. Exactly what you tried to buy them off for.

9.

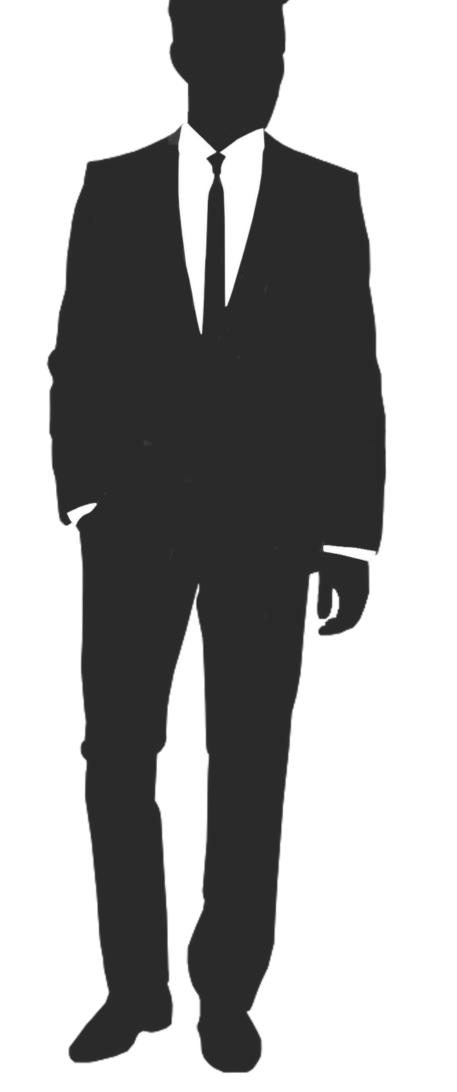

Jimmy: Look, Mike, I made one mistake. Okay? I mean, haven't you ever cut some corners? Done some things you regretted?

SUITS

s01e09 ANSWERS

vocabulary modal verbs present perfect phrasal verbs idioms

A LESSON

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

cancer duty clear prove attend imagine valuable crisscross direction

- 00:20
- Is something funny?
- I'm trying to imagine you fighting someone.
- 00:53

It's not the most glamorous duty in the world.

- This place is huge. I always get turned around. Maybe you can point me in the right direction.
- You attended Apple Creek High School, is that right?
- Decause 200 people who taught at or attended Apple Creek High were diagnosed with some form of cancer.
- You see all these power lines around here?
 They crisscross the entire town.
- They both died last month, and they sure as hell didn't die from pesticide.
 - Can you prove it?
- They're gonna investigate this. They're gonna clear your name, you know that.
 - Because a fifth-year paralegal is more valuable to the firm than [...]

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

traitor	interview	decimal
willing	back	skim
law	rule	piece

- I'm gonna tell you every single number on this piece of paper.
 - You get one number, one comma, one decimal point wrong, and that money is mine.
- Hi, I'm Rachel Zane. I'm here for my job interview.
- I don't understand why you use skim milk and then put whipped cream and sugar in it.
- Mike, Louis is a lot of things, but he's not a traitor.
- [...] are gonna fly back to Boston and never come back to my town again.
- Because a man who's willing to break the rules can't imagine someone else wouldn't.
- And Pearson-Hardman pays for law school when I decide to go.

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

rattle frivolous elusive entirely shatter chain brownstone breach difficulty

- [...] we moved here from Apple Creek, New York, six years ago. We bought a brownstone, and planted a tomato garden.
- I mean, there's times I have difficulty even going up the stairs to my daughter's room.
- Not to mention the frivolous lawsuit he filed ten years ago against the Shriver grocery chain.
- 1 slipped and shattered my elbow.
- 1 told you this was coming. They're just trying to rattle you.
- We've discovered a breach at the firm.
- Now it's entirely possible that this was an honest mistake.
- 15:37 I've been looking into you. You're an elusive man.

Check if you know these words and put them in the correct form.

suspended plaintiff pesticide lowball settlement frame betray smoking leak

- And all this grass that you see? It's been treated with pesticide every week for 20 years.
- He said me and the other plaintiffs were gonna get a settlement offer soon.
- No, I don't, but whoever did this must have framed you.
- 19:35 I'm suspended, Mike. I'm probably gonna be fired.
- We were invited to come and hear a settlement offer.
- They're talking about accepting Tanner's lowball offer.
- Last week Louis got Rachel's confidential code from the I.T. department. [...] And it's a smoking gun.
- Why would Louis betray the firm?
 I don't know, maybe he's still upset...
 - Wakefield-Cady offered me a junior partnership if I leaked the witness list.

Use the modal verb in the correct form.

- After being diagnosed with lung cancer, I couldn't work [could / not / work] anymore.
- [...] which means one of you must know [must / know] who did this.
- Jessica would never play [would / never / play] along with something like that.
- No, I don't, but whoever did this must have framed [must / frame] you.
- I'm probably gonna be fired. I should sue [should / sue] them.
- You know, you could just pay [could / just / pay] me right out in public.
 - But then I wouldn't feel [would / not / feel] like James Bond.
- Why would I fight [would / I / fight] to stay there? They're accusing me of spilling secrets?
- 29:47

 I may not have [may / not / have] a photographic memory, Mike, but I sure as hell know a lot.
- You're right. I should have apologized [should / apologize].

Complete the sentences with the verbs in the correct form of Present Perfect.

- Someone in this room has betrayed [betray] us all, and it makes me sick.
- How come I've never heard [never / hear] of him?
- He thinks they've told [tell] me about him.
- Why hasn't anyone taken [not / anyone / take] them to him?
- I've worked [work] there for five years, and this is how they treat me?
- You've never come [never / come] up empty for me before.
- You've never asked [never / ask] me to investigate another attorney before.
- Has anyone ever asked [anyone / ever / ask] you for access to someone else's code?
- 29:35

 Because except for you, no one from Pearson-Hardman has contacted [contact] me at all.
- I mean, haven't you ever cut [not / you / ever / cut]some corners?
- I mean, haven't you ever cut [not / you / ever / cut] some corners?

A2 / C1

PHRASAL VERBS IDOMS

Match the expressions with the meanings:

- off the charts at a very high level / poza skalą (np. o jakości)
- 2. stand up for somebody to defend or support a person who is being criticized or attacked / bronić się
- 3. go down to stops working / zawieszać się
- 4. take care of somebody to protect someone and provide the things that that person needs / dbać o kogoś
- 5. call back (someone) to telephone someone who has telephoned you, often to telephone again / oddzwonić
- take somebody down to defeat or kill someone, or to stop someone from causing harm / załatwić, zniszczyć kogoś
- 7. slow down to be less active and relax more / zwolnić
- 8. figure out to understand or solve something / zrozumieć, znaleźć rozwiązanie
- 9. work your ass off a rude phrase used to emphasize that someone works very hard / harować
- 10. buy off someone to give someone money so that person will help you or let you do something that is not

legal / przekupić kogoś

11. cut corners - to do something in the easiest, cheapest, or fastest way / iść na skróty